“Continuing the Growth and Prosperity of Downtown Lancaster”

Highlights -Part XI

Part XI – October 2006 – Growing Together -Discussion with John Ahlfeld and Neil Kinsey of the Lancaster Inter-Municipal Committee (LIMC)

- ❖ It is important to look at issues across municipal boundaries and work together to take advantage of each other’s strengths.
- ❖ The LIMC Plan encompasses a greater vision than the City Plan, but not as great as the County Plan.
- ❖ LIMC is the largest regional planning group—statewide.
- ❖ The only way a plan gets implemented is if the people hold officials accountable.
- ❖ Cities exist to provide essential services.
- ❖ Some services are more efficiently and effectively provided on a regional basis—e.g. police, fire, emergency services.
